

2018 U.S. National Aerobatic Championships

Limited Low Cost Lodging – EAA Volunteer Bunkhouse

Ten rooms are being offered for use during the 2018 U.S. Nationals Aerobatic Championships in the EAA's Volunteer Bunkhouse. The bunkhouse is located on the EAA AirVenture grounds and has recently been remodeled.

The rooms are furnished with two twin beds and there is one room that is a single twin bed. The bunkhouse has a common room with a TV, desk, two chairs and a love seat. The kitchen has a refrigerator, Microwave and high top table with bar stools

Cooling is provided by window coolers. There are two common use bathrooms at either end of the building.

Fee per night is $15.00 per person. Reservation are first come – first serve and must be made with Lorrie Penner at execdir@iac.org. A credit card authorization form will be emailed to you to fill out a return to the EAA address on the form. Directions to the bunkhouse will be emailed to you upon successful confirmation of credit card payment. Keys to the property will be in your welcome packet at registration.

